TWIN CITIES ZINE FEST

2018

Program

Welcome to the 14th Annual Twin Cities Zine Fest!

We have over 90 exhibitors and invited guests this year, making it the largest yet. Thank you for celebrating the DIY spirit of self-publishing with us!

Social Media

Share your pictures and good times with the TCZF community by tagging us! The official hashtag is #TCZF2018.

We're @TCZineFest on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and Tumblr.

The library can be found @hclib on Twitter.

Bathrooms+

There are gendered bathrooms in the first floor atrium of the library and two (2) gender neutral bathrooms up the escalator across from room where workshops are being held in the RKMC Room (S-275).

+labelled on map.

Quiet Spaces

The rest of the library is open during TCZF, and the perfect place to find a quiet space to relax in. The library gallery is also a quiet space to take in art and a breath from 12- 5.

*Twin Cities Zine Fest is a sponsored project of Springboard for the Arts, a nonprofit arts service organization. If you'd like to donate funds to help sponsor TCZF 2018, contributions on behalf of Twin Cities Zine Fest may be made payable to Springboard for the Arts and are tax deductible to the extent permitted by law.

Safer Space Policy

The Twin Cities Zine Fest is a safer space, explicitly welcoming to everyone regardless of age, race, orientation, gender, ability, or expression. Oppressive actions, behaviors, and language will not be tolerated. Participants and attendees are asked to consider how their language and behavior impacts others in attendance, in zine form or otherwise.

The following will not be tolerated at TCZF

- racism, sexism, classism, ableism, homophobia, transphobia, misogyny, and all other forms of discrimination, spoken or printed.
- theft of money or property
- sexual harassment, inappropriate/unwelcome comments and behaviors.
- Touching anyone or taking photos without explicit and enthusiastic consent.
- Disruptive and disrespectful behavior
- Action or language that makes other participants feel unwelcome or unsafe.
- Disrespect of differing opinions, beliefs, and points of view.
- Any actions that go against Hennepin County Library rules or policies.

While TCZF attempts to assure that all are in agreement with this policy, we cannot ensure that there will not be instances otherwise. TCZF reserves the right to ask participants or attendees who are in violation of the policy to resolve their behavior or to remove themselves.

Other Important Things to Note

- No smoking, e-cigarettes, or drugs are allowed on the premises
- Please refrain from using colognes, perfumes, essential oils or products scented with them.

If you have an concerns about a participant or attendee, or if you witness oppressive or dangerous behavior, please reach out to TCZF organizers.
